Academic Year Meal Plan Agreement

Fall Semester 2011 — Spring Semester 2012

Choose and Check the Plan That's Right For You

I choose the 7-Day Plan.

$3,792.00/year - to be paid in two semester payments of $1,896.00

I choose the 5-Day Plan.

$3,590.00/year – to be paid in two semester payments of $1,795.00

What We Agree to Do

We agree to give you our Award Winning "all-you-can-eat" dining hall access during the Fall Semester of 2011 and the Spring Semester of 2012. Your encoded UGA Card is your key to unlimited and unrestricted access into The Village Summit, Bolton Dining Commons, Oglethorpe Dining Commons, and Snelling Dining Commons whenever they're open for Meal Plan service. Because of remodeling, maintenance, and other things that can come up, we can't promise that each of the four dining centers will be open all year. (If you lose your UGA Card, just go to the Tate Center to get another one. We can't give you a temporary card.)

If you choose the 7- Day Plan, you'll have unlimited access seven days a week whenever the dining centers are open for Meal Plan service. No Sunday dinner service is available. If you choose the 5 - Day Plan, you'll have unlimited access Monday through Friday whenever the dining centers are open for Meal Plan service.

Our first meal for the Fall Semester will be lunch on August 9, 2011. During the Fall Semester, we'll close the dining centers after breakfast on Wednesday, November 23th for Thanksgiving break and reopen on Sunday, November 27th at 10:30 am. Our last meal for the Fall Semester will be breakfast on Friday, December 16, 2011. Spring Semester meal plan service will begin on Tuesday, January 3, 2012 at lunch and end on Saturday, May 12 after breakfast.

What You Agree to Do

In signing and submitting the meal plan contract to UGA Food Services, you agree to make payment on your student account balance according to billing instructions published by The University of Georgia Bursar's Office. The charge for the meal plan you select will be posted to your student account. You will receive notification of the meal plan charge posting to your student account via the e-mail address you have registered with The University of Georgia along with payment instructions from the Bursar. It is very important for you to understand that this agreement is for the FULL ACADEMIC YEAR and is not just for the Fall Semester. The Spring Semester meal plan charge for the plan you choose will be automatically transmitted to your student account in November with payment due in December in keeping with the schedule issued by the Bursar's Office.

You agree NOT to take food out of the dining halls. This promise is very important, because without it we couldn't possibly offer such great all-you-can-eat menus at such terrific prices. If you take food out of the dining halls, then we can take away your Meal Plan rights without giving you a refund.

You agree to behave responsibly in the dining halls. If you behave irresponsibly in the dining halls, then we can take away your Meal Plan rights without giving you a refund. If interruption of enrollment occurs as a result of University disciplinary action, no refund credits will be made to your student account after the 4th week of the semester.

Your Meal Plan Bill of Rights

If you decide that you don't want to be on the Meal Plan and you let us know before the first serving day of the Fall Semester (August 9, 2011), then you have the right to leave the Meal Plan. The amount charged to your student account for the meal plan will be credited in full less a $25.00 administrative fee.

If you decide not to enroll at The University you may cancel your meal plan contract and the charge to your student account will be credited in full, less a $25.00 administrative fee.

If you decide to withdraw from the University you may cancel your meal plan contract. Refunds in the form of a credit to your student account will be made based on the day you withdraw from the Meal Plan Program.

If you are enrolled Spring Semester and decide to cancel the Spring Semester portion of your Meal Plan contract, then you have the right to leave the Meal Plan. If you cancel before the first meal plan serving day of spring semester (January 3, 2012) then 70% of the charge to your student account will be credited. You may cancel your contract after the first serving day; however, the amount credited will be 70% of the meal plan contract price less a daily cash rate charge for each day the meal plan offered service.

If you graduate fall semester and/or if you are not enrolled in spring semester classes held on the UGA Athens Campus (like the Studies Abroad Program), then you have the right to cancel the spring portion of your meal plan agreement. You will need to fill out a request to cancel at Food Administration and upon verification the amount charged to your student account for the Spring Semester portion of your meal plan will be credited in full.

If a physician prescribes a special diet for you to address a health problem and Food Services is unable to provide the special diet, then you have the right to leave the Meal Plan, and charges for future meals to your student account will be credited in full. Our on-staff registered dietitian is ready to help with counseling to make the Meal Plan work for you. You can't leave the Meal Plan because of a diet that you follow for other reasons, or because you've committed to eating somewhere else (like a sorority or fraternity or other social organization), so be sure the Meal Plan is right for you before you sign up.
